AREA STUDENTS ON DEAN'S LIST

FARMVILLE, VA. – Feb. 24 – Three Longwood College students from the Appomattox area made the dean's list for academic excellence during the fall semester.

Lucy Lewis Martin, Patricia Ann Hudson and Shirley Cunningham Eye are among 195 Longwood students, in an enrollment of 2373 at the college, who achieved the distinction of earning an academic average of 3.5 (B+) from a possible 4.0 during the first 16 weeks of the college year. The current dean's list represents eighty per cent of the student body.

Lucy Lewis Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lewis Martin of Appomattox is a 1971 graduate of Appomattox County High School. She is a freshman working toward the bachelor of science degree in pharmaceutical training. Patricia Ann is one of the 34 students who made 4.0 or all A's for the fall semester.

A graduate of Scottsville High Mrs. Eye is a sophomore physical education major who plans to teach upon graduation from college.

Traditionally a strong teacher-training institution, Longwood offers a liberal arts program and graduate degrees in English, history, and education. When founded in 1839, Longwood became Virginia's first college for women and the nation's fifth woman's college.
